

CANADIAN SEVERE WEATHER – EVENTS AND INSURED DAMAGE¹ (+ADJUSTMENT EXPENSES)²

2012 TOTAL INSURED DAMAGE

Approx. $1.19 billion³

2011 TOTAL INSURED DAMAGE

Approx. $1.7 billion⁴

2010 TOTAL INSURED DAMAGE

Approx. $915 million⁵

¹ Data compiled by Insurance Bureau of Canada through PCS, IBC Survey

² The expenses associated with settling claims include salaries of adjusters, legal fees, court costs, expert witnesses and investigation costs.

³ Dollar values are approximate and in Canadian dollars

⁴ Dollar values are approximate and in Canadian dollars

⁵ IBC Survey

MAY 2012 | PCS-CANADA CAT #34

A weather system across Ontario and Quebec.
Damage from winds and flooding

Insured damage – $260 million

JULY 2012 | PCS-CANADA CAT #35

Heavy rains, thunderstorms and winds caused damages across Edmonton area

Insured damage – $106 million

JULY 2012 | PCS-CANADA CAT #36

Heavy rains and winds across Ontario with damages in Hamilton and Ottawa and surrounding areas

Insured damage – $90 million

JULY 2012 | PCS-CANADA CAT #37⁶

Wind and thunderstorms across Southern
Alberta from Cardston to Nanton

Insured damage – $74 million

AUGUST 2012 | PCS-CANADA CAT #38⁷

Flooding, Hail, Wind storm battered Calgary and surrounding areas.

Insured damage – $552 million

OCTOBER 2012 | PCS-CANADA CAT #39⁸

Parts of Ontario and Quebec were battered with heavy rains and thunderstorms from Superstorm Sandy, which hit the U.S
northeastern coast.

Insured damage – $106 million

^{6, 7, 8} Subject to resurvey by PCS-Canada